Honeymoon Trail Winery takes Silver and Bronze Awarded at Finger Lakes International World Competition

At the 2009 Finger Lakes International Wine Competition (FLIWC) more than 40 judges from around the world participated in the two-day competition, which took place in Rochester, New York. The competition has been named among the 20 most influential wine competitions held across the country by American Gold Medal Wines. Among the medals awarded, Honeymoon Trail Winery took home several silver and bronze medals. In the silver category Honeymoon Trail was awarded for their Diamond white wine, Pink Catawba and Mighty Niagara, a sweet white wine. Among the bronze awarded were two dry red wines; Baco Noir and their red wine blend called Fullmoon, The popular sweet red wine, Honeymoon Sweet, was also awarded the a bronze medal.

The FLIWC competition holds an annual auction and dinner event with all of the proceeds to benefit Camp Good Days and Special Times, a not-for-profit organization dedicated to improving the quality of life for children and families all over the world whose lives have been touched by cancer and other life threatening challenges. For more information on the event or wine competition results you can go to the FLIWC's website at www.fliwc.com.
